

Kitsap Sun

Home News Community Sports A&E Opinion Life&Death Lifestyle Submit Photos/Videos Blogs

Top Stories Weather Code 911 Obituaries Politics Schools Technology Environment Transportation

Ask the EXPERTS

Have a Home or Auto Insurance Question?

Get the Answer

Kevin Krieger | Home/Auto Insurance

Bainbridge Island

search

Home › Local › Most Recent Local News

Bainbridge Affordable Housing Development Taking Shape

By Tristan Baurick
For the Kitsap Sun
Wednesday, January 28, 2009

STORY TOOLS

- E-mail story
- Comments
- iPod friendly
- Printer friendly
- News alerts

MORE MOST RECENT LOCAL NEWS

- Update: Police Chase Slows Traffic in Port Orchard

BAINBRIDGE ISLAND

Affordable housing advocates will give the first glimpse on Friday of designs for a 24-home development planned for Winslow's east edge.

"We're building a neighborhood that we hope will be seen as an asset to the entire community," said Carl Florea, director of the Housing Resources Board, the island group leading the Ferncliff Avenue project's development.